Oh, ascension time has come; you must leave it all behind. Every weight and every sin is now fallen from your side. Come up hither I do say, the trumpet sounds your way, tune thy ear and tune thy heart, here into this new part. For I would say unto to you my people, that perfection has come, the hour when you shall rise forth in my image. Yea, the picture in the mirror is changing, saith the Lord. Yea your vision is changing saith the Lord. Yea, the scales have fallen from your eyes saith the Lord. And behold I am revealing myself unto you saith God. Yea your identity is being perfected in me saith the Lord; and I say unto thee that as thou ariseth and walketh into this new day, behold thou shall feel lighter and lighter and lighter and lighter as the weights drop off thee saith the Lord. You shall not need to climb. You shall only need to rise. You shall only need to be caught up. You shall only need to flow. You shall only need to be lifted up saith the Lord.

For yea, this is the hour and this is the time and this is the moment of the lifting saith God. I am lifting thee out of thy trouble. I am lifting thee out of thy sorrow. I am lifting thee out of thy sickness and I am lifting thee out of thy pain. Because you have become light, light and airy in this realm, saith God. But heavy beyond measure in the heavnlies are you saith the Lord. Yea, you plant your feet there and you shall not be moved saith God. In this realm and in this side, in this visible and in this temporal, you shall be come so light and so airy that you will easily be carried away by my Spirit into a heavenly walk and into a heavenly realm saith the Lord. Yea, I am cutting thy ties. I am cutting thy ties. I am changing thy desires saith the Lord. Yea, you shall even see hobbies you won't have anymore, desires for fun---- you will lose them saith the Lord and the only desire you shall have is that toward Me saith God.

You shall be swept up in my Love for you, saith God; and you shall be called My Beloved. My Beloved One saith he Lord. I shall woo you into my chambers and there I shall hold thee in My breast. There I shall sing in thine ear and I shall minister unto thee. For thou are being lifted up saith the Lord.

Now I see the Lord taking some of you right into His chamber, I see the Lord throwing the door open on some of you and even your state of feeling unworthiness and just not quite good enough, the Lord is going to throw the door open and He is going to sweep you into His Chamber. He is going to sweep you into His Chamber and He is going to draw you unto His breast and He is going to pour from His heart to your heart, from His own to your own, saith the Lord, and you shall have fellowship and you shall have intimacy and you shall have intercourse with the very Holy Ghost of God.

And yea saith the Lord, you will loose your taste for the natural feast you partake of now, for one you have eaten at the table of the King, you can only be a King saith God and yea saith the Lord I will feed you exotically with new revelations you never knew existed saith God. I feed thee with sweetness, I will feed thee with fatness and I hear the Lord say that when we leave out of that chamber, we will be so intoxicated with His wine, we will be so intoxicated with the wine of His pure love for we will drink of Him. He is the brook by the way and we will drink of Him and be satisfied.

We will leave there and try to partake of earthen food. I am not talking about the natural, and we are going to say I can't eat this. I belong with the King's table; I belong in the King's house. I eat exotic food, I eat fat food, I eat sweet food. I drink of strong wine. Yea, saith the Lord, I heard God say just then, even My Word shall become intoxicating to you.

I hear the Lord say even My Word shall become like an intoxicating drink unto you, Yea saith the Lord, nothing shall rob your attention, nothing whatsoever, because you will be so inebriated with the depth and the strength of what God is pouring into you from His Word that it will be impossible for you to get off course and to have your span of attention broken. Yea saith God I will mesmerize you saith the Lord. Yea saith the Lord, I will mesmerize you, Yea saith the Lord I will show so much of my Beauty you cannot look at anything else saith the Lord. Oh don't you see we are in the Glory right now, we are in a Glory right now, we are in the heavens right now, right now, right now, and the Lord is saying I will reveal Myself in such beauty unto you; you will not be able to look at another. You will not be able to look on another. For you shall be so captivated in Me, saith God, that you will have no desire. I hear that verse out of the Songs of Solomon, "My Beloved is Mine and I am His and His desire is towards me," and I hear the Lord say communion shall be sweet and it shall be long and lengthy, not short and fast and leaving you wondering where did your time go. Bu yea, saith the Lord, we shall enter into a romance, and I will court thy very soul. I will court thy very soul saith God. I hear the Lord saying there is an intoxication going to come in the body of Christ. I cannot loose that word- intoxicating- in my spirit. There is a mesmerizing that shall take place in the body of Christ.

And I hear that word over and over and over and over in my spirit—two words God has put in my spirit since I have gotten down here with you on this floor—that is intoxication and mesmerize—that these are the two things that the Lord is saying that the body of Christ will begin to experience saith God. And yea, saith the Lord, when you enter into your word chamber, you shall be remembered and reminded of old romancing dates. When the subject was never changed and no eyes going around anywhere. Just a full attention because you felt romanced and I hear the Spirit say, You are going to feel spiritual romance in your (walk) and I hear the Lord say that He is going to reveal His pure self to you saith God and when He reveals His pure self to you are going to become so mesmerized, hallelujah, that you will never want to leave His presence because He is beautiful.

And I hear the Lord say that the marriage is consummated, therefore the veil has been taken off of the face saith God and behold saith God you shall peer into My eyes and I shall peer back into your eyes, and yea you shall search My heart and I shall search your heart and yea we two shall become one as we consummate the relationship that we so long to be in saith God.

I hear the Lord say My bed is undefiled, and I hear the Lord say, My marriage is honorable, and I hear the Lord say that I have kept Me only to thee. Glory be to God, and I hear God's heart grieve because we are so in love with so many things besides Him, but I hear the Spirit say that it is falling off and yea saith the Lord, even things that you have been so caught up in you are going to find they have no bearings on your life whatsoever. Yea saith the Lord, I am going to teach thee to labor with your hands and yet your mind be caught up in Me, saith God. Yea, saith God Oh, I am going to teach you to do a job and do it well and yet in the same time I am going to walk up and down the avenues of your spirit and speak revelations into your heart saith God.

And I hear the Lord say this is that voice that skips, and leaps upon the hills and upon the mountains. Yea, it is lively, yea it is resurrection, yea it is the very life of God quickening your garden and making it alive. That it may flourish and come forth and bear fruit. And I hear the Lord say this is a hundred fold relationship, and I hear the Lord say, I will not cut my people off before it reaches a hundred fold. It shall be turned into perfection saith the Lord.

So I say to you saints, get your harp off the willow. Find the words to your song, and I am talking that specifically to somebody in this meeting right now. Take your harp off the willow and find the words to your song. You have mourned long enough. Hallelujah.
